FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RSPA Expands Association

RSPA welcomes two new staff members

Charlotte, NC—April 13, 2007 - During the month of April, RSPA welcomed two new staff members, Nicole Taylor and Jay Usyk. Nicole joined RSPA as the Corporate Communications Manager. She will help enhance RSPA's website and monthly magazine while contributing to several marketing projects currently in development. Jay Usyk joined the team in mid April as the Director of Education Services. Jay will be responsible for all of RSPA's education and certification programs.

“As RSPA develops itself as the industry association for retail technology, the addition of Nicole and Jay will greatly enhance RSPA's communications and educational capabilities,” said Joe Finizio, RSPA executive director. “Their talents, experience, and mission will provide information and education which is critical to our membership and industry.”

About New Staff

Nicole K. Taylor has six years experience in broadcast and web-based media as a former television journalist. Before that, Nicole worked as marketing coordinator for a non-profit organization. Nicole brings a vast knowledge of communicative techniques to RSPA as well as a creativity to help gain exposure with RSPA target markets.

Jay Usyk has more than 30 years experience in the retail technology industry, filling such positions as President and Chief Operation Officer of Micros of South Florida and Managing Director of the U.S. Distribution Channel of Micros Systems. Before joining RSPA, Jay was already contributing to 'Connect', RSPA's monthly magazine, with his education columns. Jay's expertise in the retail technology industry will enable him to develop and enhance the level of education offered by RSPA.

About RSPA (www.GoRSPA.org)

The Retail Solutions Providers Association (RSPA) is the only association dedicated to the retail technology industry. RSPA members include resellers, hardware manufacturers, software developers, consultants, finance companies, and distributors bringing retail technology products and/or services to the marketplace. The RSPA provides education, industry advocacy, standards and information benefits that assist member companies in expanding their business.
