RSPA Introduces Fall Semester of Education

RSPA offers 4 industry webinars as part of its Fall Semester

Charlotte, NC—August 27, 2007 – The Retail Solutions Providers Association launched a new education program for its members that began with 21 education session at RetailNOW 2007. That program is continuing with RSPA’s Fall Semester of industry webinars*.

“RSPA is extremely excited about the introduction of our Fall Semester of Education, commencing with our first webinar. Our fall series of webinars are intended to address the education desires of our dealer and vendor members. This webinar series, combined with the introduction of our sales classes and certification program, gives our members a lot to look forward to,” said Jay Usyk, RSPA Director of Education.

To kick off the Fall Semester, RSPA will host its first webinar, titled ‘Retail Technologies...What’s Next?’, on September 13th, 2007 at 2:00pm EDT. Four panelist will conduct this 60 – minute webinar; Barry Wise of Wise Retail Consultants, Joseph Finizio of RSPA, Abby Lorden of Hospitality Technology Magazine, and Tony VanSeventer of StoreNext Technologies. This webinar will provide attendees with information on emerging technologies and industry trends in 3 vertical markets; retail food, general merchandise, and hospitality. To learn more about this webinar or to register, visit GoRSPA.org.

RSPA will also offer webinars on the following dates:

- October 9, 2007 PCI...Being Prepared!
- November 8, 2007 Wireless Technology
- December 12,2007 Small Business Management

*Webinars are live, interactive presentations that you can attend with a standard internet connection and telephone.
